Licensing Agreement

This licensing agreement is between the Depositor and the Board of Governors of Mount Royal University and must be granted for each deposited Work submitted by the Depositor, at the time of deposit. If a Work is deposited on behalf of another person, the Depositor must have express permission to make deposit on their behalf, and that express permission should be forwarded to the Repository administrator.

This licensing agreement ensures that:
1. The University has the non-exclusive right to distribute and make available the Work in perpetuity.
2. The Depositor is the copyright holder, or has permission from the copyright holder, to distribute the Work or elements of the Work.
3. The University may copy or translate the Work into another medium for the purpose of preservation.
4. The Work does not infringe the privacy of any person, including any research ethics standards set by the University or funding agency.

The submission process is not complete until Depositor signals agreement with the following:

Depositor’s declaration
1. By agreeing to this license, the Depositor (whether the author(s), copyright owner, or authorized assignee), warrants that:
   1.1. The Depositor is the owner of the copyright in the whole Work (including content & layout) or is duly authorized by the copyright owner(s) or other holder of these rights, and is competent to grant under this agreement a license to hold and disseminate copies of the material.
   1.2. To the best of your knowledge, the Work is not a violation or infringement of any copyright, trademark, patent, or other rights whatsoever of any person.
   1.3. That if the Work has been commissioned, sponsored, or supported by any organization, the Depositor represents that they have fulfilled all of the dissemination-related obligations required by such contract or agreement.
   1.4. You have read and understand this agreement, along with the information provided in the Intellectual Property & Copyright section of the IR information guide.

The Repository’s Rights and Responsibilities
2. For the lifetime of the Repository or its replacement, the Repository:
   2.1. May make publically accessible copies of the Work (including the abstract), in electronic format via any medium for the lifetime of the repository or its replacement, or as negotiated with the Depositor, for the purpose of free access without charge.
   2.2. Without changing the content, may electronically store, translate, copy, or re-format the Work to ensure its future preservation and accessibility, unless notified by the Depositor that specific restrictions apply.
   2.3. May incorporate metadata or documentation into public access catalogues for the Work. A citation to the Work will always remain visible.
2.4. Shall retain the right to remove the Work for administrative reasons, or if it is found to violate the legal rights of any person.

2.5. Shall not be under any obligation to take legal action on behalf of the Depositor or other rights holders in the event of breach of intellectual property rights or any other right in the material deposited. Neither the Repository nor Mount Royal University shall be liable for any infringement of patents, copyrights, other intellectual property rights, nor any other rights, to the extent that a claim arises from or relates to material deposited by the Depositor. The Depositor shall indemnify the Repository and Mount Royal University from any claim by a third party arising out of or related to the material deposited by the Depositor.

2.6. Shall not be under any obligation to reproduce, transmit, broadcast, or display the Work in the same format or software as that in which it was originally created.

Software
3. Regarding Repository software:
   3.1. The copyright of any additional data, software, user guides, or documentation to assist users in using the Work shall belong to the Repository on behalf of Mount Royal University and any other parties that the Repository may choose to enter into an agreement with to produce such materials.

   3.2. While reasonable care will be taken to preserve the physical integrity of the Work, the Depositor should not rely on the Repository to maintain the sole preservation copy of the deposited Work, but rather ensure they attend to preservation issues for the Work. Neither the Repository nor Mount Royal University shall be liable for any costs, expenses, losses, or damages incurred or suffered by any person whatsoever.

Governing Law and Enforcement of Agreement
4. This license agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta, Canada. In the event of any dispute under the license agreement, a suit may be brought only in a court of competent jurisdiction of the Province of Alberta, Canada.

Grant the License
5. By submitting this license, the Depositor agrees to deposit the attached Work into the Mount Royal University Institutional Repository.
